

Course Description

Standards and guidelines for fisting at locations outside your own home. Includes host/guest responsibilities, safety protocols, group behavioral standards, a variety of packing lists (from single session day bags to remote event preparations), and suggestions for improving your experience at group fisting events.

Course Objectives

After completing this lesson, you will be able to accomplish the following tasks:

- Identify two resources that help vet potential play partners.
- Describe at least one method to mitigate risk and ensure your safety while playing with new playmates.
- Prepare and pack travel or day bags for remote events, including: a single hookup, a local group event, or a far-distance group event.
- Stock your supply closet and prepare your home to host play partners.
- Identify the roles and responsibilities of hosts and guests and explain three reasons why these responsibilities could shift between host and guest.
- List five points of conduct (outside of general fisting etiquette) for large group fisting events.
- Explain to a first-time event participant how to prepare for and what to expect at fisting events.
